Lucerne, 01st May 2022

Preamble

WHEREAS the Members of the European Law Students' Association Switzerland are now through representatives assembled in Council, in Fribourg, Switzerland, November 2019;

RECALLING that the aims of ELSA are to develop professional and student relations of an international character in the field of Law, to prepare its members for professional life in an international environment, to contribute to the exchange of scholarly experience and to stimulate mutual understanding and friendship on the principle of equality of all its members;

CONSCIOUS that continually expanding international relations in the fields of trade and industry, legislation and state administration make growing demands on all professionals, especially lawyers;

REALISING that the European legal professions not only have to recognise the importance of growing international cooperation, but also have to prepare themselves for the demands created by this development;

CONVINCED that in order to satisfy all these demands and to broaden and improve the international side of education, practice and exchange, the existence of an international organisation of law students and young lawyers is recommended;

EXPRESSING that within this competence, the supreme aims of ELSA Switzerland are to encourage and facilitate direct contacts and cooperation, individually and collectively, whether privately or officially, between persons from different states involved in the field of Law and to promote the usefulness of foreign legal experience by expanding the knowledge and understanding of the different concepts and solutions to legal questions;

NOW THEREFORE the Members of ELSA Switzerland adopt the following Statutes and Standing Orders in order to execute and regulate the above principles and aims.

As accepted by the National Council on the 9th of November 2019 in Fribourg, Switzerland and approved by the International Board of ELSA on the 27th of December 2019.

As amended by the National Council on the 7th of November 2020 during the online NCM.

As amended by the National Council on the 1st of May 2022 during the NCM in Lucerne.

Scope of the Association

Art. 1 - Name, Seat, Membership

- 1) The European Law Students' Association Switzerland (ELSA Switzerland) is an association according to Art. 60 et seq. of the Swiss Civil Code.
- 2) ELSA Switzerland is a Member of the European Law Students' Association (ELSA) seated in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, and ELSA Switzerland acknowledges its statutes and regulations.
- 3) The seat of ELSA Switzerland is in Zurich, Switzerland.

Art. 2 - Nature and Aims

- 1) ELSA Switzerland supports the Aims of ELSA.
- 2) ELSA Switzerland is a non-political, independent, and non-profit association with the aims to promote, establish and develop mutual understanding, cooperation, and personal contacts among law students and young lawyers from different countries and legal systems, as well as the different cantons in Switzerland, thereby equipping the students and young lawyers for professional life in an international environment.
- 3) With respect to the realisation of the mentioned aims, ELSA Switzerland shall be guided by the following philosophy statement;

Vision:

A just world in which there is respect for human dignity and cultural diversity.

Purpose:

To contribute to legal education, to foster mutual understanding and to promote social responsibility of law students and young lawyers.

Means:

To provide opportunities for law students and young lawyers to learn about other cultures and legal systems in a spirit of critical dialogue and scientific cooperation;

To assist law students and young lawyers to be internationally minded and professionally skilled;

To encourage law students and young lawyers to act for the good of society.

Art. 3 - Structure

- 1) ELSA Switzerland is a National Group of ELSA as defined in its statutes.
- 2) ELSA Switzerland is the link between the Swiss Local Groups and ELSA.
- 3) ELSA Switzerland is organised on a local (a) and national level (b).
 - a) At the local level, ELSA Switzerland is organised in Local Groups, submitting themselves to the aims and activities of ELSA and ELSA Switzerland. Local Groups are bound to respect any decisions taken in accordance with the Statutes and the Standing Orders of ELSA and ELSA Switzerland.
 - b) At the national level, ELSA Switzerland is organised in one National Group. The National Group confederates the Local Groups in Switzerland and represents the international ELSA network nationally and the Local Groups in the international ELSA network.
- 4) The Local Groups are the Members of ELSA Switzerland in the context of these Statutes.

Art. 4 - Mission

- 1) ELSA Switzerland represents the interests of the Members on the international level. In order to achieve this, it:
 - a) represents its Members' interests at the International Internal Meetings of ELSA, especially at the International Council Meetings;
 - b) provides its Members with all the relevant information of the international network.
- 2) To achieve the aims of Art. 2 of these Statutes, ELSA Switzerland shall support its Members in the areas connected to those aims.
- 3) As far as necessary and possible, ELSA Switzerland coordinates the activities of its Members in order to achieve the aims of Art. 2 of these Statutes.

Members

Art. 6 - Membership

- 1) The Membership in ELSA Switzerland may be granted to a local association under Swiss law, with its members being students at law faculties or young lawyers, that supports the aims and activities of ELSA and ELSA Switzerland, if its application for membership is approved by the National Council with a two-thirds majority of the votes cast and the requirements for Membership according to Art. 7 of these Statutes are fulfilled.
- 2) The National Board of ELSA Switzerland examines whether all the requirements are met and brings the application to a vote at the next possible National Council Meeting, together with a report regarding the requirements and a recommendation for the vote.
- 3) If the application is refused, another application may be submitted if there was a change in circumstances.

Art. 7 - Requirements for Membership

- 1) The applying association must be an association under Swiss law.
- 2) The statutes and regulations of the applying association must be in accordance with the statutes and regulations of ELSA and ELSA Switzerland.
- 3) The board of the applying association must be democratically elected.
- 4) The applying association must send a written application for membership to the National Board of ELSA Switzerland. The application must include a declaration in which the applicant expresses its commitment to the aims and activities of ELSA and ELSA Switzerland, and its will to become a Member of ELSA Switzerland.

- 5) There is not already an ELSA Local Group at the law faculty represented by the applying association.

Art. 8 - Termination of Membership

- 1) The membership ends, if:
 - a) the National Council decides to expel a Member with a two-thirds majority of the votes cast, if it receives a related proposal by the National Board or a Member, in case a Member:
 - i) caused considerable harm to ELSA or ELSA Switzerland, to any of the ELSA Local Groups, or to anyone within their responsibility.
 - ii) ceased to support the aims and activities of ELSA or ELSA Switzerland.
 - iii) does not fulfill its non-financial obligations under the Statutes and Standing Orders of ELSA Switzerland towards ELSA Switzerland within a year.
 - b) the financial obligations of a Member towards ELSA Switzerland are not paid within a month after a second warning and the National Council expels the Member with a simple majority.
- 2) The membership ends immediately, if:
 - a) a requirement for membership according to Art. 7, para. 1) - 3) is not fulfilled anymore and the situation is not resolved after the next Local Council Meeting of the Member, if the Local Board of the Member was aware of the situation. If the National Board gets notice of, or identifies any requirement not being fulfilled anymore, it must immediately inform the respective Local Board of the Member, giving them the opportunity to explain themselves, and request to resolve the situation. This notice must be sent to all Members of ELSA Switzerland.
 - b) the Member dissolves itself; or
 - c) the Member submits a written statement, declaring the termination of their membership.
- 3) For a Termination of the membership according to Art. 8, sec. 1) lit. a) or b) to be valid, the member in question must be given an adequate opportunity to
